1824 THE GREAT GALE

On the night of 22rd November 1824, a storm so ferocious devastated much of the Dorset Coast. Waves were recorded over 7 metres high, there were many shipwrecks and damage all along the coast.

Now remembered as the Great Gale of 1824, we are commemorating the 200th anniversary of the storm, and we invite all young artists (18 and under) to enter our ART COMPETITION!

Winning entries will be displayed as part of the Great Gale Exhibition, which will be open to the public in several locations across the Dorset Coast in October and November!
